BESTPATH FOUNDATION

Change the way you look at things and the things you look to change... BestPath Foundation helps people make a fundamental shift in how they look at the world and embark on a journey that will turn into your personal legacy.

Discover your true gifts. Find opportunities to serve others and engage His intended purpose. It will be the adventure of a lifetime. You will find a sense of significance and clear direction that most people can't even imagine.

CHALLENGE

People come into difficult situations and are faced with life-altering choices. These circumstances can be the catalyst for change – not just pragmatic change, but fundamental evolution.

Ted was faced with making a career change following a 30+ year career in public school administration. It was a significant life transformation that seemed more than a little overwhelming at the beginning.

Unexpectedly out of work, Carolyn needed help. While she needed to find a new job, she was also feeling a bit lost - emotionally, mentally, and spiritually. It was a difficult time of transition.

A painful divorce left Dave feeling lost, both in life and with his career direction. He knew he was being called to do something else but had no idea what it was or how to go about making the change.

SOLUTION

Jim Davis, Founder of BestPath Foundation, has developed a strategic life coaching program focused on God's unique purpose for you. Ted, Carolyn, and Dave are among the many people Jim has helped. Proverbs 20:18 "Finalize plans with counsel, and wage war with sound guidance."

"Jim did an outstanding job helping me identify a career focus with specific goals and objectives that was consistent with my personality, temperament, skills, and gifts. He skilfully helped me translate and communicate my past work experience and skill set into the language of the job marketplace. Finally, through clear expectations, role playing, and specific assignments orchestrated by Jim, I developed confidence and strategies to present myself to prospective employers."

Ted Oakley

"For me, the beauty of your training is that it is not simply designed to help a person 'get a job.' Over the past five years, I have turned to my BestPath Foundation manual again and again, in an effort to stay up to date on the valuable information I received. Thank you so much for this practical and Godly training, whose usefulness far outweighs the initial financial investment."

Carolyn Jones

"I knew I was being called to do something else. Jim immediately began helping me to understand what my skills and gifts were and how to go about applying them in the market. I was out in the market in just a few short weeks and accepted my next assignment after negotiating a 20% pay increase. Since I started working with Jim, I have had nine promotions and pay increases totalling close to 300%!"

COMPETITION

There are a lot of companies that offer life coaching and career counselling. BestPath Foundation delivers a comprehensive program that goes far beyond any of the competitors.

Jim Davis has built BestPath Foundation around God's path for each of us. His spiritual focus combined with his deep expertise with people and business have helped countless people transmute their lives into God-blessed destinies. Ephesians 1:11-12 "We have also received an inheritance in Him, predestined according to the purpose of the One who works out everything in agreement with the decision of His will, so that we who had already put our hope in the Messiah might bring praise to His glory."

“BestPath Foundation is an outstanding, one-of-a-kind, comprehensive, internationally user-friendly online package, creatively designed to propel the marketplace professional to walk out his/her purpose. I fully recommend and trust Jim Davis and the BestPath Foundation, because of positive life changes that I and others have experienced for almost a generation.”

JOURNEY

On August 26, 1989, at the age of 41, Jim Davis returned to his hometown in Ohio; unemployed, homeless, in debt over $250,000, discouraged, depressed, dejected and in search of a Savior.

Then he saw an ad in the classifieds for help in getting a job. He went to the interview, paid $2,500 for job assistance, and after his fourth session they offered him a position helping others get a job. Jim accepted the offer and started learning a craft – Career Counseling.

After dedicating himself, Jim was recognized as “Rookie of the Year” in 1990, Lead Advisor for Columbus, OH office in 1993, and International Career Advisor of the Year for both 1994 and 1995. He was finally selected as Corporate Director of Training and Career Services in 1996 for 10 offices across five states. From this position, Jim oversaw the counseling services for 1,500 job seekers annually, generating revenue over $4 million.

Jim left his career counseling position in October 1996 and began his own Life Coaching Assignment by founding Resources Unlimited Group. Over the next few years, he continued gaining experiences and knowledge which propelled him towards his purpose. His efforts included hosting a call-in radio program called Career Talk, a three-year assignment as a co-writer for Purpose Magazine, graduating from The Ohio State University Foundation for Entrepreneurial Education, and obtaining the rights to bestpath.com.

God’s mission was becoming clear.

In 2001, Jim accepted membership into the American Association of Christian Counselors and graduated from the Light Institute in the specialty area of “Caring for People God’s Way” the following Spring.

On July 27, 2004, BestPath Foundation was established as a business entity with the Ohio Secretary of State. Just a few months later, Jim published the definitive work on work, the 196 page “Being About My Father’s Business” by Christian Faith Publishers (978-1-64349-022-9 paperback, and 023-6 digital).

Since BestPath Foundation was founded, efforts have been made to convert the program to an online format, starting with “Focus on Purpose”, reducing the time required for counsel from 16-20 face-to-face hours down to about six hours. By 2018, the entire Resources Unlimited Group manual program was available through an interactive website at BestPathFoundation.com.

After three years of continued program refinement, Jim is leading the Foundation in expanding BestPath to help reach more people across the United States. It’s important that growth is carefully managed to ensure that Licensing is limited to worthy entities who genuinely respect the mission of the organization and who are fully committed to helping connect people with His purpose.

FINANCIALS

A BestPath Foundation Licensed business is a for-profit, membership-based organization, through which Licensees aim to help entrepreneurs, sales representatives, and professionals using a weekly structured meeting - sometimes referred to as networking groups, tips clubs, or structured referral groups. A Licensee's members pay membership dues, which creates revenue for the Licensee.

The Licensee will generate $1,000.00 per enrolled client as they help discover and engage in God's purpose for their life.

CONCLUSIONS

The BestPath Foundation License is a business opportunity requiring a financial investment, along with a passion for delivering His mission and a time commitment for optimal success. Further information is available following an initial conversation.
